VIP INVITATION

You're invited ...

to attend the Critical Care Exposition held during the American Association of Critical-Care Nurses' National Teaching Institute® (NTI) at the George R. Brown Convention Center. The Critical Care Exposition features more than 250 exhibitors with the newest healthcare equipment, supplies, pharmaceuticals, nursing apparel, publications and educational materials. Plus, you will find representatives from hospitals, healthcare systems, nurse staffing and travel nurse agencies, and colleges and universities offering the most attractive career opportunities available. This invitation enables you to obtain a badge and gain access to the exposition with no fee as a guest of one of the exhibiting companies and AACN. Badges may be picked up beginning Tuesday, May 17, and daily during the exposition.
